Boot Camp....Missions Training School
 July, 14-28, 2007

I am pleased to share with you an amazing opportunity as well as the fulfillment of a personal dream of mine.

In July, our ministry in Managua, Nicaragua will be hosting the first annual Missions Boot Camp in connection with Globe International. This is a two week course of intensive missions training and hands on experience. It will include classroom time, daily devotions, and challenging, real life experiences especially arranged by veteran missionaries to prepare you for the adventure of missionary life in any country!

Since childhood I have been impacted by my own parents' commitment and calling to the task of world evangelism. They went through two years of specialized training before ever reaching Colombia, South America (with six children in tow!). I am aware that we will never be fully prepared for the unique challenges that cross-cultural ministry presents. However, I firmly believe that there is much we can learn from those who have gone before which can make the transition more successful.

The school is still open for applications. I am personally looking forward to being a part of the daily activities, and I can't wait to have an opportunity to share some of the journey the Lord has taken me on as a missionary. I, along with a host of missionaries both in-country and those traveling with Globe International team, will be providing practical instruction and training. I have been asking the Lord for many years to allow me the privilege of helping to train the next generation of His army that will take part in fulfilling the Great Commission.

I invite you to consider joining us for two weeks this summer in Nicaragua! There will be plenty of good food, lots of kids to hug and the opportunity of a lifetime.

Rachel, Ana and I send our love and our thanks to each of you.
