

Ezra

The biggest event this year for Tarah was the birth of Ezra Clay Nyberg on May 30th. He is a very cheerful baby and has been keeping them busy. She and her husband Tim live in rural Vernon, TX. Tim works at the Maximum Security Psychiatric Hospital located in Vernon -- which is quite interesting -- and Tarah enjoys being able to stay home with both Ezra and Isaac. Isaac just turned 3 and is a very good big brother, but is quick to inform us that Ezra “has to get bigger first” before he can play with any of Isaac’s cars and trucks.

Isaac

Crista has been busy with work this year; still at the Mathematics Institute in Cambridge, MA. This summer they sent her to Pisa, Italy to oversee their month-long Summer School there (poor her). She says, “despite the many mathematical thrills I get to witness, I’m hoping to move on to something less... administrative next year. Maybe I will make pottery full-time.”

Rachel had her 16th birthday in August and is a Sophomore in high school. She loves soccer, photography and reading, especially if it’s not related to homework! She and I spend alot of time together as I am still her “driver.” She is looking forward to getting her driver’s liscense very soon. This opens up another area for prayer!

Ana is now eight years old. She continues to be our family “treasure.” She has a very tender heart and is thoughtful and loving. Although she has to work very hard in school, she is a big help to me in practical areas. I have been awakened many mornings with hand-written love notes taped to my forehead or face.

Love Changes Lives

I have often jokingly told people that if I ever had time to write a book it would be entitled, “My Life Behind a Stroller.” As the oldest of six children I was very involved in raising my siblings, then my own children starting arriving and now the privilege of caring for children continues. My investment in each child is a constant amazement and inspiration.

Thank you, as always, for all of your prayers and support, for not only me, but also my girls. It means so much to us to know that we have you on our side.

Gratefully yours as a Mother, Grandmother and Missionary,

Sandy

A note from the Globe Director

You probably noted on the front of Sandy’s Newsletter that the name of her ministry has changed to “Globe International – Nicaragua.” This new name reflects some changes that Sandy initiated with us in the current year. The ministry in Nicaragua has grown incredibly in recent years, and with that growth came growing pains. This year has been a time of redefinition of the primary ministry – which is caring for orphans, plus expansion toward greater things.

Sandy and I, along with the Globe Leadership Team and Board, have been working closely together in this season. Globe International – Nicaragua reflects our joint commitment to preserve Sandy’s vision to reach the children of Nicaragua, and to build together toward greater harvest throughout Latin America and the world. Along side of continued ministry to the poor, which includes orphanage ministry and feeding programs, Globe International – Nicaragua will also facilitate expanding ministry in training, evangelism and church planting. Pray with us as we continue to develop this vision!

Proverbs 22:6 “Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.”
