Qué Paso in Nicaragua!

January 2008

With the help of a few friends, we had a fabulous Christmas Fiesta at Los Brasiles Feeding Center. The majority of the people living in this area live in makeshift shacks made of materials they found laying around at the dump. Well, word quickly spread once we arrived, and before we knew it over 200 people, mostly children, began pouring in. The cooks had prepared a very special meal for the occasion - rice, chicken and vegetables. Excitement escalated as we set up the sound system and sang some Christmas carols. Of course, everyone's favorite was Feliz Navidad. Then I shared about God's gift of eternal life through his Son Jesus Christ. Everyone had a great time, including us. Truly it is more blessed to give than to receive.

While surfing one day, I met a local surfer, Jorge, from a very poor area, San Rafael Del Sur. He told me there were about 30 other surfers in his town who were sharing some boards between them. Through Jorge, we arranged an outreach night to share the Gospel with them. We met at a local rancho type restaurant and set up our movie screen to show the popular Christian surfing film, Noah's Ark, . For a while, we were wondering if anyone was going to show up. Then out of the darkness, a group of guys finally appeared, Nicaraguan time (casually late). We watched the movie then shared with them about having a personal relationship with Christ. Seeds were planted and the Lord touched many hearts. Afterwards, we had a drawing for some t-shirts, wax, leashes and the grand prize - a surf board, all donations from a ministry in West Palm Beach. The guy who won the board was so excited and shared a testimony of how he had recently come to know Christ.

Our Christmas holidays were especially blessed as our oldest daughter, Sarah, joined us from Florida for two weeks. We had a quiet Christmas and just enjoyed being together treasuring each moment! Thanks to all those who helped with her airline expenses.

Special Need: Several women are asking for help with childbirth education. If you have an early edition Lamaze book you would consider donating, it would be greatly appreciated! Just send it to Globe International to the mailing address on our newsletter, in care of 'Mark and Kevin Randall'. We only need the early edition published in the 70's or 80's. If you have any questions about it, please contact Kevin via email.

Once again, we want to thank you for your prayers, support and encouragement. We appreciate all that you do for us!

Much love in Jesus,

Mark, Kevin, Sarah, Leahy, Antia
